

Hands-on Exercises

1. Find and use the module that would allow downloading a package directly from internet. You may need to set the proxy as "Environment".
2. Find and use the module that would archive a complete folder of files and create a tar file
3. Create playbook to install MySQL server and create a small application that would demonstrate the successful installation of database server
4. Create playbook to install MariaDB server and create a small application that would demonstrate the successful installation of database server
5. Install Nginx server on your machine using Ansible Playbook and configure the environment to publish web application.
- 6.